The Cob Solar Oven
Oriol Balliu
oriol@rocamare.com
1. Excavation
2. Base made with stones and lime mortar
3. Placement of the mixture of mud and straw
4. Earth and water are mixed with a standard cement mixer and the straw is added with the feet.
5. The completed base of the oven - 70 x 110 x 80 cm
6. Placement of the frame - height 20 cm
7. Detail of the attachment
8. The frame installed
9. Final layer of earth, sand, and fiber mixture stabilized with lime.
10. Interior insulation using cork board
11. The finished interior lined with aluminum recycled from printing press plates
12. Glass lid
13. The finished oven without external reflectors reaches 100° C. Interior space: 50 x 70 x 20 cm
13. View of external reflector with which temperatures reach 120\degree C.